

Recommended Genealogy Resources

Family Search Wiki – The first place to stop when wanting to learn about resources, locations, ethnic origins and more.

https://www.familysearch.org/en/wiki/Main_Page

Allen County Public Library Genealogy Center- The largest public genealogy archive in the US. They offer quick guides, video instruction and more.

<https://www.genealogy.acpl.lib.in.us/>

Conference Keeper- a calendar of virtual events, webinars and conferences to help genealogist of all levels further their continuing education.

<https://conferencekeeper.org/>

Cyndi's List- a categorized and cross-referenced list of links to help you with every facet of your research.

<https://cyndislist.com/>

Genealogy at National Archives and Records Administration- Find Census records, military records and so much more.

<https://www.archives.gov/research/genealogy>

Find A Grave- The world's largest collection of cemeteries and gravestones.

<https://www.findagrave.com/>

US Gen Web- Curated by volunteer genealogists, these free resources are categorized by state.

<https://usgenweb.org/>

National Genealogical Society – Books and Resources for beginners to advanced researchers.

<https://www.ngsgenealogy.org/>

American Ancestors- New England Historic Genealogical Society is a national center for family history, heritage, and culture.

<https://www.americanancestors.org/>

NYGB- New York Genealogical and Biographical Society's page of news, resources, guides and more.

<https://www.newyorkfamilyhistory.org/>

Genealogy Resources at New York Public Library – Photos, city directories, maps and more.

<https://www.nypl.org/about/divisions/milstein/genealogy>

Steve Morse- This genealogy professional provides tools for finding immigration records, census records, vital records, and for dealing with calendars, maps and more.

<https://www.stevemorse.org/>

Chronicling America- This prolific online historical newspaper database is part of the Library of Congress.

<https://chroniclingamerica.loc.gov/>

Reclaim the Records – a database of more than 60 million records released by state and city governments through the efforts of this group of genealogists and historians is growing every day.

<https://www.reclaimtherecords.org/>

AfriGeneas- this site is devoted to researching African American genealogical resources and features assistance through message boards and chat.

<https://afrigeneas.org/>

Jewish Gen- The global home for Jewish Genealogy

<https://www.jewishgen.org/>

Tombstone Calculator- Many old tombstones list age and date of death. This handy tool calculates birthdays.

<http://www.searchforancestors.com/utility/birthday.html>